

STORMWATER

Slow It Down
Spread It Out
Soak It In

Stormwater runs over the land picking up pollutants that make their way to Lake Erie untreated. Keep stormwater where it falls by shrinking your lawn with native plants, installing a rain barrel, rain garden, or adding a swale to slow down the water.

For more information, contact:

Cuyahoga Soil & Water Conservation District
216.524.6580 • www.cuyahogaswcd.org